Women in God's Service

The ladies of the Crieve Hall Church of Christ have a history of serving others. “WinGS” organizes the ladies activities for better communication and coordination and following are descriptions of some service opportunities. Please look over the list and decide which areas are of interest to you and which will help you grow in your spirituality and service to God.

Fruit Totes

What we do –

We make bags to hold fruit arrangements to be delivered to those who are in the hospital, have a new baby, a death in the family, or special requests.

Who we need –

We need ladies to sew totes. We provide fabric and the pattern to sew.

Contact–

Jean Chance

Encouragement

What we do –

We provide encouragement to members and their families by sending cards or calling.

Who we need –

We need ladies to send cards or call those who are mentioned in the announcements, classes, order of worship, or bulletin. The occasions may include illness, sympathy, or congratulations on a birth or marriage.

Contact–

Carolyn Unger

Heart Warmers

What we do –

We provide contact with our shut-in ladies.

Who we need –

We need ladies who can keep in weekly contact with one of our shut-ins. Each participant keeps in contact with her shut-in by visits, calls, or written notes, and brings to our attention any special needs that may arise. When enough volunteers are available the contact is usually every other week.

Linda Craft/Jane Merryman

Nursery Workers

What we do –

We staff the toddler/baby nurseries during the Sunday worship services to provide a safe environment for children and to allow parents to worship or train older siblings.

Who we need –

We need ladies to work a month during one of the Sunday worship services.

Contact –

Sherra Taylor— a.m. services
Rhonda Pennington – p.m. service

Showers

What we do –

We organize the equipment/facilities/procedures for showers to welcome new babies and marriages.

Who we need –

All Crieve Hall ladies are encouraged to attend showers to show our love and support. We need ladies who will be “willing” hostesses whenever there is a need for additional help in providing a shower.

Contact—

Carole Wood/Phyllis Northcutt

Absentee Connection

What we do –

We encourage absentee sisters.

Who we need –

We need ladies to make monthly contact by calling, or sending a card to those who have been absent from the worship services.

Contact—

Betty Garrett

Ladies' Nights

What we do –

We organize 3-4 nightly gatherings during the year.

Who we need –

We need ladies who will help plan and organize nightly gatherings, and ladies who will help in the implementation of these plans.

Contact—

Felicia Wood

Martha's Kitchen

What we do –

We “deep” clean the large kitchen.

Who we need –

We need ladies to clean the kitchen once a month.

Contact—

Kathy Richter

Meals for Moms

What we do –

We provide at least 3 meals to mothers with new babies.

Who we need –

We need ladies who can provide a meal for new mothers in their geographical area.

Contact—

Lisa Boyd

Missionary Guest House

What we do –

We provide a welcoming home-away-from-home for visiting missionaries and their families.

Who we need –

We need ladies to stock the refrigerator prior to a missionary's visit. We also need ladies who will monitor the cleanliness and appearance of the duplexes.

Contact—

Barbara Boettner/Kay Gibson

Joyful Servant Bread

What we do –

We provide a small loaf of bread and tea bag to be taken to shut-ins, new members, absentees, and anyone who needs a visit. Prepackaged bread is stored in the main kitchen freezer ready for delivery.

Who we need –

We need ladies to bake 8-16 loaves of bread one month using the special baking kits provided. A signup sheet is provided for 2 ladies or groups to bake bread each month.

Contact—

Jo Watson

Baptismal Assistants

What we do –

We provide assistance to, and a pleasant environment for, ladies as they prepare for baptism.

Who we need –

We need ladies who can help in the women's dressing room during a baptism, as well as monitor the condition of the dressing rooms for their assigned month.
